CORRIGENDA

COVID-19 global risk communication and community engagement strategy, December 2020 - May 2021: interim guidance, 23 December 2020
(WHO/2019-nCoV/RCCE/2020.3)

The document was lightly edited after publication to correct typographical errors. Changes to the content are identified below.

Page 4, table 'Overarching goal', Column 2, Lines 22–35

Delete:

Indicative activities
Supporting the adoption of RCCE minimum standards Developing strategies on priority issues e.g. stigma Coordinating efforts to manage the infodemic Monitoring and evaluating RCCE activities
Identifying gaps in existing evidence and how to fill them Enhancing media monitoring, social listening, community feedback systems Using data to advocate on behalf of community priorities
Identifying the core RCCE skills and competencies Facilitating participatory capacity needs assessments Developing and implementing capacity building strategies
Identifying the right membership and structures Facilitating joint assessments, planning, monitoring and advocacy Integrating RCCE into all COVID-19 response efforts

Insert:

Indicative activities
Support the adoption of RCCE minimum standards Develop strategies on priority issues e.g. stigma Coordinate efforts to manage the infodemic
Identify gaps in existing evidence and how to fill them Enhance media monitoring, social listening, community feedback systems Use data to advocate on behalf of community priorities
Identify the core RCCE skills and competencies Facilitate participatory capacity needs assessments Develop and implementing capacity building strategies
Identify the right membership and structures Facilitate joint assessments, planning, monitoring and advocacy Integrate RCCE into all COVID-19 response efforts

Page 6, column 1, lines 8–11

Delete:

The strategy reflects the experiences and views of a range of partners working on RCCE.[2] It builds on but replaces the first RCCE global strategy, and is supported by existing RCCE
guidance materials.[3]

Insert

The strategy reflects the experiences and views of a range of partners working on RCCE.[2] It builds on and revises the first RCCE global strategy, and is supported by existing RCCE
guidance materials.[3]

Page 13, column 2, lines 20–21

Delete:

• Designing and implementing monitoring and evaluation activities of RCCE activities.

Page 42, Lines 2-7

Delete:

GOARN, IFRC, UNICEF and WHO would like to thank the collaborative efforts of those involved in the development of this strategy and acknowledge the time and expertise shared during its research, drafting and review. In particular, the team would like to thank John Bugge who led the development of the strategy in close coordination with the Collective Service Core Team, including
Alexandra Sicotte- Levesque (IFRC), Carla Daher (UNICEF), Charles-Antoine Hoffmann
(UNICEF), Emilie-Anne Leroux (RCCE Collective Service), Eva Niederberger (RCCE Collective Service), Melinda Frost (WHO), Ombretta Baggio, (RCCE Collective Service), Sameera Suri (GOARN), Tamar Zalk (WHO), Thomas Moran (WHO) and Vincent Turmine (RCCE Collective Service).

Insert:

GOARN, IFRC, UNICEF and WHO would like to thank the collaborative efforts of those involved in the development of this strategy and acknowledge the time and expertise shared during its research, drafting and review. In particular, the team would like to thank Jon Bugge who led the development of the strategy in close coordination with the Collective Service Core Team, including
Alexandra Sicotte- Levesque (IFRC), Carla Daher (UNICEF), Charles-Antoine Hoffmann
(UNICEF), Emilie-Anne Leroux (RCCE Collective Service), Eva Niederberger (RCCE Collective Service), Melinda Frost (WHO), Ombretta Baggio, (RCCE Collective Service), Sameera Suri (GOARN), Tamar Zalk (WHO), Thomas Moran (WHO) and Vincent Turmine (RCCE Collective Service).

These corrections have been incorporated into the electronic file.